THE SECRET OF OUR SCENTS

Tomavicci is blessed to work with world-renowned Master perfumers, such as Christian Provenzano, Angela Stavrevska, and Chris Maurice. We are proud to have these noses behind our initial release of fragrances and for the many projected to be released soon.. Under their guidance, our team of perfume and cologne designers harvests premium ingredients from around the world. They are then distilled in natural oils and bottled by hand at our facilities in the Middle East and Italy. The end result? Distinctive yet subtle fragrances that are never overpowering, yet capable of leaving a lasting impression on the wearer and those around them.

TOMAVICCI OPULENTIA OUD

Nose : Christian Provenzano

Tomaviccì Oud is a captivating and complex blend right from the start. The saffron offers a spicy and exotic essence, while coriander and nutmeg add a touch of warmth and depth. The tagetes and geranium contribute a vibrant and floral quality, while the raspberry brings a subtle sweetness. As the fragrance develops, the middle notes of orris, Egyptian jasmine, Damask rose, Bulgarian rose and orange blossom take center stage. The powdery and earthy nature of orris combines harmoniously with the intoxicating floral aromas of jasmine, Damask rose, Bulgarian rose, and orange blossom. This exquisite blend creates a bouquet of captivating scents that evoke elegance and femininity.

The base notes of patchouli, cyprìot, vetiver, amber, musk, moss, cistus labdanum, and oud anchor the fragrance and provide a rich and sensual foundation. Patchouli and cyprìot bring earthy and woody elements while vetiver adds a touch of freshness. Amber and musk provide warmth, while moss and cistus labdanum add depth and complexity. The presence of oud, a highly prized and luxurious ingredient, infuses the fragrance with a unique and distinctive character that is both alluring and enchanting. Overall, this luxury oud fragrance creates an immersive olfactory experience, combining floral, spicy, woody, and musky elements to create a captivating and luxurious scent that lingers on the skin and leaves a lasting impression.

XANAT

Xanat, the Tomaviccii Luxury Gourmand crafted by Christian Provenzano, is a sumptuous tribute to the enchanting world of vanilla. This irresistible fragrance opens with the luscious sweetness of black sugar and the rich depth of dark chocolate, creating an inviting and indulgent introduction. As it unfolds, the heart reveals a sumptuous vanilla absolute that takes center stage, beautifully complemented by the bold aroma of freshly brewed coffee, wrapping you in a warm, comforting embrace. The base notes of tonka absolute, benzoin, and musk provide a sensual foundation that enhances the creamy, luxurious quality of the vanilla. Xanat is a masterful celebration of vanilla's richness, designed for those who crave a deeply comforting and opulent aromatic experience.
