The founders behind the brand

Attar Al Has was born from my lifelong passion for the sacred art of perfumery. I wanted to revive the emotional depth and heritage of attars and bring them into the modern world with authenticity and soul.

Each creation is a personal tribute to tradition.

Ersin Bas

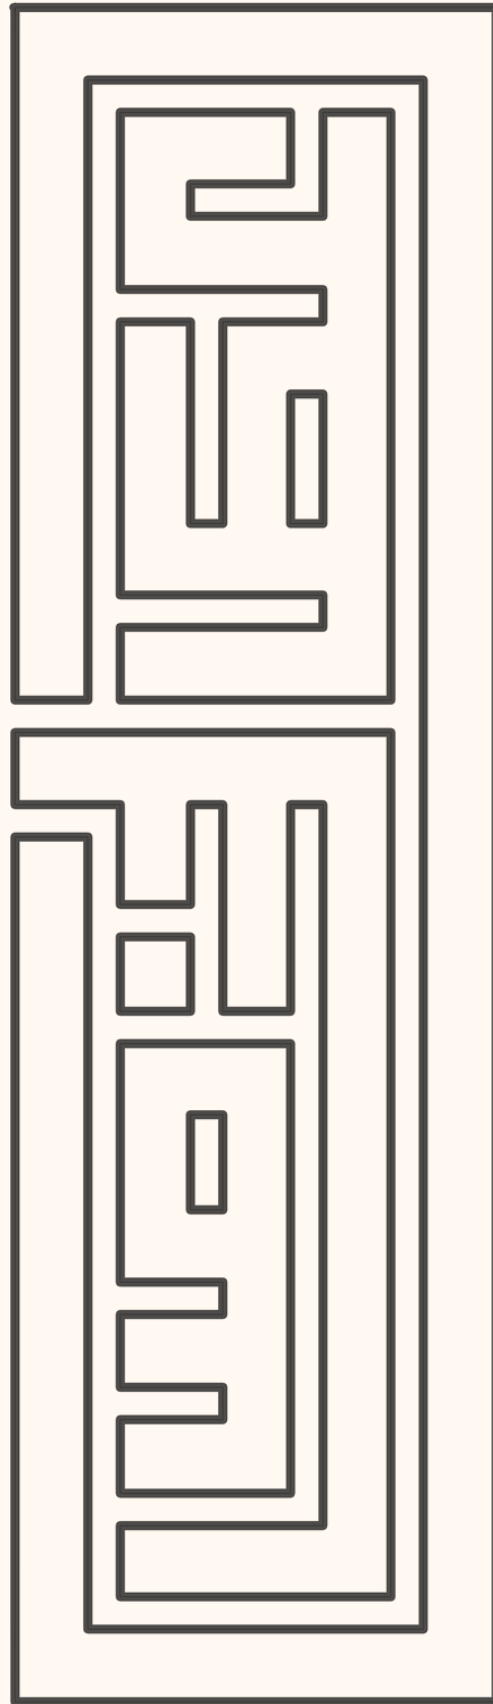

CEO founder of Attar al Has

Attar Al Has was born from the soul of Istanbul. Where East meets West, and every breeze carries centuries of scent and story. Inspired by its golden domes and spice-laden bazaars, I set out to bottle its magic. What we create is not just perfume, but a fragrant bridge between worlds.

Bottle design

Sculptural and regal, the bottles of Attar Al Has are inspired by the architectural elegance of the Ottoman Empire. With bold, geometric contours softened by subtle curves, the shape evokes a fusion of classical domes and modern minimalism. Designed to stand like a jewel on any vanity, each bottle feels weighty, luxurious, and timeless.

Attar Al Has is rooted in the richness of Arabic culture.

“Attar” signifies the purest essence of fragrance.
A tribute to the artistry of traditional perfumery.

“Al Has” means “the personal” reflecting the intimate, exclusive nature of each scent we craft.

The Story Behind the Logo

The Attar Al Has logo is a handcrafted calligraphy design, engraved onto each bottle as a tribute to the rich artistic heritage of the region.
